All-Elks' Bowling Event At Levy's Alley Is Won By S. F.—Richmond Third

"Allright—let's go" called the referee at Levy's bowling alley last night when the all-Elks' tournament opened for a brilliant display of the great and increasingly popular pastime, and they were off with a rush. Whirr, boom, crash! ! ! The pins were pushed and bowled and battered about with a vim and a vengeance.

The engagement was a class B event, and six teams entered. Each quintet was rearing to go.

The bunch from across the bay won first honors. They won the total high score and the highest individual score, both in the singles and the aggregate. De Turk cured all competitors with a score of 606, for the three games. His individual score topped the list, also, with 235, leading Wilson, of Richmond by one point.

In the finals Richmond copped out third money, being shoved out of second place by Alameda.

"The scores were very good for class B bowlers," said that wizard who presides over the Seventh street alley.

While Richmond only managed to "show" in the finals last night, she was consoling with the highest score for any one game, chalking up a total of 944 points in the second game.

Last night's events were under what is known as the bay jurisdiction of the California Elks' Bowling Tournament.

Next Monday at the Richmond bowling alleys there will be a contest among the local Elks for a high team, to participate in the doubles at San Jose on May 25.

Singles will be played at the California Bowling Alley, San Francisco, May 31.

Ladies Take Hand on Men's Night, Olive Homestead

The men imagined they were having a great evening at last night's monthly social of Olive Homestead Yeomen at K. P. Hall. You see May is known as the men's month in that order, and they are supposed to be the hosts.

"The other eleven months the ladies do the entertaining. And tonight we had to take charge," said one of the active members who is always on hand to see that thing go forward successfully.

The following interesting program was given last night:

Piano Trio—Misses Florence and Helen Clark and Ruby Williams.
Dance—Elkus Carpenter.
Recitation—Alma Hudson.
Piano Solo—Doris Lincoln.
Vocal Solo—Roy Patterson.
Dance—Carmelita Cunningham.
Reading—Mrs. Howard Roe.
Recitation—Phyllis Hudson.
Vocal Solo—Homer Miner.

Dancing followed the formal program and was highly enjoyed by a large crowd. Misses Bessie Jensen at the piano made delightful music for the dancers.

There were visitors from Oakland. The chairman (a woman) was Mrs. Jim Miller.

PRAETORIANS PLAY WHIST

The large hall of the Woodmen of the World building last night was the scene of a large and enthusiastic gathering of the Praetorians for a whist party.

Mooseheart Boy Goes to West Point

With a live and zealous membership of three hundred and fifty Richmond Lodge No. 550, Loyal Order of Moose, has grown to be one of the important factors in the fraternal life of the city.

At last night's regular meeting a great many matters of interest to the members were discussed. Much gratification was expressed at the honor recently bestowed upon one of the boys of the great Mooseheart Orphanage at Mooseheart, Indiana. The youngster was appointed a cadet to the West Point Military Academy in sharp competition with other contestants.

The national Moose convention will be held at Toledo, Ohio, June 27 to July 2, and to this convention J. H. Smith has been elected delegate with Judge C. S. Hannam, alternate.

The dictator of the local lodge is W. B. Jenkins, who takes a keen interest in all the activities of the order.

The Moose Drill Team will give a dance at East Shore Park June 25.

WAR MOTHERS TO HOLD MEETING THIS AFTERNOON

The War Mothers of Richmond will have an important meeting this afternoon at the Richmond club house at 2:30. F. W. Sawyer of San Francisco who is active in the work and is a good talker will be present and address the meeting.

OFFICIALS OF CITIES WILL GATHER AT SACRAMENTO

Aid of the municipalities of California to bring the control of the state's water power and storage sites to the state and to prevent the speculation by individuals on the future of Pacific Coast irrigation projects will be asked of the California League of Municipalities at a special meeting in the city hall at Sacramento this morning. Present will be mayors, city attorneys and other officials from many of the cities of the state and a large number of farmers and others from the irrigation centers.

City Attorney D. J. Hall, and Secretary W. J. Wallace of the Chamber of Commerce will attend.

Specifically the meeting will discuss the advisability of presenting in initiative form Senator M. B. Johnson's bill which was designed to create a water power commission in California. This bill carried the senate at the last session without opposition, but was killed in assembly by committee. A two-thirds vote to bring it to the floor of the lower house failed by four votes.

For the information of the officials the California Irrigation Association at the meeting will turn over all of its data together with all of its findings regarding the law governing the filing of claims. Since the Marshall plan has been furthered before the legislature and else where the location of many of these sites have been made public and up on a large number of them individual and power companies have filed. Under the plan of the League of Municipalities advantage would be taken of the constitutional right which would give city or state a prior claim and an effort will be made to create a commission which will file on the sites in the name of the state.

Rebekahs Will Put On Initiatory Work at Pinole in June

A most interesting meeting of Richmond Rebekah lodge, No. 206 was held last evening at which time two candidates were initiated.

A new lodge of Rebekahs has been instituted at Pinole and the local lodge has been asked to put on the initiatory work June 18.

Interesting reports were made from the delegates who attended the grand lodge in Oakland. The delegates were Mrs. M. Little Alderson, Mrs. Beulah Tiller, M. Mabel Chapman, Mrs. Adele Clark, Mrs. Pearl Powell and Mrs. Mabelle Phillips.

After the initiatory work the members enjoyed a starchy short cake banquet. The committee for the evening was composed of Mesdames Alexandria Perle, Nellie Barnard, Allie Rufschneder, Nettie Wagle, Emma Erler, Barbara Anderson, Bertha Taylor, Margaret Van Valer, Billie Kitchen, Clara Scott, Lucille Capelle, Josie Williams, Effie Reynolds, and Elizabeth Wright.

Maceabees in Regular Session.

McKinley Tent No. 63, Knights of Maceabees met last night in the small hall, W. O. W., for the transaction of routine business. J. R. Van Valer, commander, was in the chair.

MONEY AND MATERIAL GIVEN FOR IMPROVEMENT FAIRMONT AVENUE

All members of the board of trustees of the City of El Cerrito were present last evening when Mayor Phil A. Lee, called the meeting to order.

Two bids for the labor for the construction of a concrete culvert across Liberty street near Gladys were received. Harry Kalls bid was $203, and that of Neel and White $267. The contract was awarded to the lowest bidder. The material for the work is to be furnished by the city.

Superintendent of streets A. H. Erickson has been very busy during the past week securing donations from the property owners along Fairmont avenue, and the big companies that make a great deal of use of the street, securing donations, so that the thoroughfare could be placed in proper condition. He reported to the trustees that he had collected $400 in cash, and had promises of materials to the value of $600. He was instructed to proceed with the improvement. The street will be graded and leveled, and then a crown of crushed rock and oil will be placed on it.

As no bids for the improvement of Norval and Everett streets were received the trustees decided to advertise for bids.

Shines Take Minstrels to San Rafael

The Richmond Elks do nothing by halves.

When the Best People on Earth enter a drive for Sweet Charity, they inject all their vitality and all their talents.

It may be a campaign for advancing the cause of the Salvation assie. If that's it, why every Bill in the supreme domain of Elksdom makes a personal part, and helps verflow the little tambourines with old and silver.

If it's Christmas time and there is a lot of kiddies' stockings that are hung of the route of Santa Claus, the Elks get in the game and run extra sleighs into the by-ways and back alleys where the loyal reminder won't go. And the arts of little tykes and little asses warm towards Deity. And the Elks did it. No foolin'.

"There's time for work and time for play," say the Elks. Righto.

Last night the Richmond gang went to San Rafael and the Shinola hines entertained the frat as they he pay with their rich, rare and acy songs and dances and jokes. The bunch went two hundred strong, and to make sure that they'd et back to Richmond before the ve o'clock whistle this morning, hey chartered the Charles Van hamme and made arrangements with Moose Moch to see that they couldn't get their feet wet.

Their show was a whizz at San Rafael. The Marin county Elks oared with laughter and cried for more.

The Shinola Shines are in demand from all parts of the state.

Music From the Sandwich Isles Pleases Public

The Royal Hawaiian Family band in their second concert at Wesley Methodist church last night played to a packed house.

They comprise a unique group in the world of musicians. Each of the nine plays some instrument.

Their most effective numbers were wrought upon the inimitable steel guitar. They played old-fashioned melodies dear to the hearts of Americans and showed easy familiarity with the snappy jazz stuff of the period.

The concerts were arranged not to make money for the church, but to afford the people of Richmond an opportunity to hear beautiful music at a minimum charge. A free will offering was given after each concert.

The applause was genuine and general last night.

MEN WHO GIVE AND MEN WHO TAKE IS THEME OF LECTURER

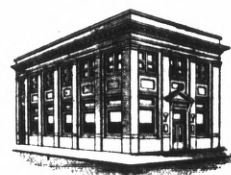

"There are two kinds of men that come into a community: there is the man who comes to make all the money he can, and to take out all the wealth he can get; and there is the man who comes to put in to the community's life as much as he can, and who may not be able to write a check for any large sum. This last man is of the type that humanity loves and remembers," said Dr. H. A. Briggs, principal speaker at the banquet given by the Men's Bible class in the basement of Wesley Methodist church last night.

"St. Francis was of the latter class. He will never be forgotten. Martin Luther, religious reformer, died a martyr and a pauper. He will be remembered to the end of Time. Livingston, great African explorer, did not go to the Transvaal to dig in the diamond mines and grow rich as Lucifer as did Cecil Rhodes, but he went in the interest of Science and Humanity and will never be forgotten. Lincoln died a poor man, but he will remain green in men's memories so long as liberty and virtue are respected," continued Dr. Briggs.

The speaker said that the men most quickly forgotten are those who spend their time and devote their talents to the amassing of money as the chief end of man.

"Co-Operation Among Business Men Along Religious Lines" was the subject of a straightforward talk by Dr. T. A. Guthrie, live-wire member of the bible class.

OFFICIAL PAPER CITY OF RICHMOND

THINKOGRAPHS by F. J. HULANISKI

ARE WE PROGRESSING

A Doctor James Hendrie Lloyd, writing in the current Scribner, undertakes to defend war on the ground that man is naturally a fighting animal, and therefore should fight. Great logic. He also attempts to condemn prohibition, because it is merely one of several more or less popular crazes, such as Socialism, Bolshevism, Suffragism and the present hysteria condition because of the recent war. More logic. If there is any foolishness the college professors overlook advocacy of in their essays for periodicals, probably the doctors can be depended upon to supply it. Neither are calculated to express intelligent ideas upon current happenings outside of their special callings, for both are so wrapped up in those callings as to be almost oblivious of anything else. This is not blaming the professors or the doctors; it is merely stating a fact; the blame lies in the fact that they continually attempt to talk about things of which, by virtue of their professions, they must be theorists only. As a rule the practical, personal experience of the average professor or doctor is great inside his calling and nil outside of it.

The host minds of the world now concede that prohibition is a blessing to mankind and has come to stay. Good morals demanded it always, and now constructive business demands it, and it is here for all time. As to wars, they are barbaric, whereas man is becoming civilized, and, as a rule does not fight just because he knows how to fight or should not, if he does. All history from the Old Testament to our modern newspapers are records of savage onsets, robberies of unoffending neighbors, extermination of whole peoples, rebellion, religious intolerance, fanatical ferocity, brutal conquests and wholesale murder, the only difference being that we have invented new and awful engines of death with which to kill thousands instead of hundreds in the same length of time. But nothing justifies barbarism on the part of civilization. Man should fight, yes, for his home, his nation, his rights and his honor, but that he should carry on bloody wars of conquest just because his cave-dwelling ancestors did and he is a descendant of them, is a brand of logic emanating in the highly scientific brains of college professors and doctors of medicine or surgery and, very properly, ending there.

Ah, yes; the way is straight and clear;
Reform will come, dear gentle readers,
And every evil disappear
When you and I are social leaders.

The only panacea for the world's ills is work, production and patience. Apply this to yourself and tell it to your neighbor, for it is a gospel truth.

The Kansas judge who holds that women ought to get men's pay should wake up. They do, don't they?

When Greek meets Greek, then comes the trust on the banan and the shoe shine.

When we are little boys we carry a lot of trash in our pockets, but after we grow up and get wise like oxen and owls we carry it in our heads.

When a woman has more nice clothes than she thinks she needs it will be when the church steeple is fifty feet below the basement.

When God made this world and got to the United States part of it, he saw that it was good and smiled, and his smile has been over this fair land ever since, and ever will be.

THE COW IS TENDING BAR

Go into any lunch place at the noon hour and look around; you will see hundreds drinking milk who used to go into a saloon and drink beer and grab a bit of free lunch. This is now fast becoming a nation of milk drinkers. Figures from Washington show that the average American today drinks twice as much milk as his father did. Last year we consumed 44 gallons per capita, not including the milk used in ice cream, cheese and butter, which is an awful lot and popular with everybody. That is also twice as much as the American ever consumed of alcoholic liquors in any form. Tell this to those who insist that there is more drinking going on than ever under prohibition. There is, indeed, of milk. It is the natural substitute for beer and wine, and a sensible nation has already made the discovery. The facts are that notwithstanding the lax enforcement of the law there is a marked falling off in the new crop of drunkards, and fewer intoxicated persons seen in public. No one will deny that the younger generation will not supply as many drinkers and drunkards as each generation furnished before, and finally public sentiment will cause better enforcement of the law. And one of the chief factors in the decrease in the desire for liquors is the nation-wide habit now in vogue of drinking milk and plenty of it.

Movies may have a bad moral effect upon children; pool rooms be bad for youths to loaf around; dance halls demoralizing to young girls; but why is it that we must have special legislation to cope with it? Time was when the parents of the young attended to such things themselves and kept their children away from places which were not good for them. Where are these parents now? Are "Society" and "The State" the only parents on the job?

We would not object specially to officers of the prohibition law searching our home, our auto or our hip pockets for booze, if that is what the law says they can do, but denied if we will allow any man, official or otherwise, to apply a stomach pump in the search. And, as Patrick Henry said, if this be treason, make the most of it.

Charles Schwab, millionaire shipbuilder, spent $15,000 on a henery. That's nothing. According to current rumors old man Stillman spent more than that on a single chicken.

The artist who painted "September Morn" ought to sue the dressmakers who design modern feminine attire for infringement of his copyright.

At St. Louis a number of wealthy citizens have been arrested by federal officials for making false returns as to their income taxes. Things are coming to a pretty pass when wealthy citizens are arrested for no reason except swearing to a lot of lies, as they always have done, about their property.

Comment is made because a rich man only gave ten cents as a tip to a waiter. Comment is unnecessary. That was ten cents too much. There is no more sense in tipping a waiter than a dry-goods clerk, street car conductor or anybody else who renders a service for which they are paid and for which you pay good and plenty to the employers of them. The tipping system is and always has been most pernicious. But unless you practice it you don't get service.

Six young ladies in an Ohio city, at a big church fair, sold 20,000 kisses for $20,000, and threw in the microbes. Cheap enough.

"The Prince Chap"

William De Mille's

Big Attraction

William De Mille, who has achieved an enviable reputation not only as the author of such stage plays as "Strongheart" and "The Warrent of Virginia," but also as a director and author of stories for the screen, believes that there is a demand in the photoplay field for a new kind of comedy. Moreover, in the new series of pictures which Mr. De Mille is producing for Paramount Artcraft release, he aims to meet this demand.

"Comedy has been defined as the humorous side of drama," said the producer recently. "Very few screen comedies live up exactly to this definition. We have farce, slapstick, and the smart, sophisticated type that, for want of a better name is called polite comedy. But the real comedy, in my opinion, carries along with its laughter a few tears, a genuine tug at the heart, and an atmosphere of simple reality. It portrays the sunny side of life, but it gives a thought to the other side also. It's chief ingredients are humor, health, and heart-appeal."

Mr. De Mille has incorporated these ideas into his picturization of "The Prince Chap," which will be seen at the Richmond theater today and tomorrow. It is an unusually attractive comedy of artist life in the Soho section of London. Thomas Meighan has the leading role, that of a sentimental young sculptor, and Lila Lee, Theodore Kosloff, Kathryn Williams, and Charles Ogle are also in the cast. Olga Printzlau furnished the scenario from Edward Peple's well-known stage play.

Ford news, Select news and a Mack Sennett comedy will complete the bill.

BROCHIAL TROUBLE CAUSED ANXIETY

No medicine has a better reputation than Foley's Honey and Tar for quickly relieving coughs, colds and croup. It loosens the phlegm and Mucus, clears the passages, eases hoarseness, stops tickling throat. John G. Hekkin, 195 Burgess Place, Passaic, N. J., writes: "I was suffering from an acute case of bronchial trouble which gave me considerable anxiety. oley's Honey and Tar deserves all the credit for my being well now." Sold everywhere.

"Bill" Harrington

Chautauqua Fame

Breezes Into Town

William G. Harrington breezed into town last night. He is director for the Chautauqua which opens here on May 25th, and by the time the season ends he will be acquainted with every one in the city. Harrington is sure an "acquaintance" and has many points of contact with organizations in this city. He is a member of the Portland Rotary club, the Progressive Business Men's club of that city, Naval Officers club, Portland Post of the American Legion, a Mason, and a sociable, congenial, energetic and likable chap.

His friends call him "Bill" and it is very likely that before he is in Richmond many days that everyone here will be calling him by his first name.

The Chautauqua director was formerly professor of English and public speaking at Upper Iowa university, later occupied a similar position at the Pacific university of Oregon, and had just got started in the practice of law when the war broke out.

Harrington says that he is glad to get into a "he" country as he recognizes Richmond to be such a place, as he has just come from Texas and Arizona, where he has fought the rainstorm, the windstorm, the heat and the cold, and adverse financial conditions.

It is the opinion of Harrington that the assembly of talent this year is the best that the company has got together in nine years, and is sure that a wide awake city like Richmond will thoroughly enjoy it.

Y. M. C. A. Praised

by Pershing for

War-Time Service

General John J. Pershing, in an address at the thirty-fourth annual dinner of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association at the Waldorf-Astoria, praised the work of the association at home and overseas. He was the guest of honor and principal speaker.

One thousand persons attended the dinner, Alfred Marling was toastmaster. John R. Mott, general secretary of the International Committee, spoke of the Y. M. C. A. work during the war.

General Pershing was given a tremendous ovation when he rose to speak. He told of his experiences with "Y" men in the Philippines, on the Mexican border and in France, and declared that it was overseas that he came in closest touch with the association workers. He said the Y. M. C. A. organization expanded to meet the needs of the A. E. F., and told how the association had taken charge of the army canteens at his request.

"When the work of the Y. M. C. A. came to be compared with that of other organizations operating with far less responsibility and covering only special areas," said General Pershing, "there arose some unjust criticism, of which other organizations too often took advantage. I should like to express here in this presence my deep appreciation of the results obtained."

"I also wish to express the belief that this association will continue to grow in usefulness to humanity and will early become a universally recognized force in our national life against which the powers of evil may not prevail."

The committee in charge of the dinner was composed of A. C. Bedford, Cleveland H. Dodge, D. Hunter McAlpin, Herbert L. Pratt, William Jay Schiefelin, James M. Speers, William Sloane and Alfred Marling.

S. F. MARKETS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Declines were noted in egg prices at the morning session of the San Francisco Dairy Exchange today. Extras, extra pullets and extra firsts went off 1-2 cent, and undersized pullets dropped 1 cent. With no prime firsts offering butter prices were steady. California flats fancy cheese strengthened to 18 1-2 cents.

RUSSIAN-POLISH MUSIC TOPIC OF MENDELSSOHN

The members of the Mendelssohn club at its meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Smith at 33 Nevada street had as their subject "Russian and Polish Music." An interesting paper on Polish music was read by Mrs. Sridham, and Mrs. J. G. Gerlach gave a comprehensive sketch of Polish and Russian composers that was much enjoyed. The musical portion of the program consisted of a solo by Mrs. J. P. Smith, the hostess; an instrumental solo by Mrs. Parker; and a piano duet by Mrs. Benussen and Miss Lee Dickey.

During the business portion of the meeting the members discussed the plans for a picnic to be held June 2.

No One Found

At an early hour yesterday morning, J. P. Strom of 262 Eleventh street took two shots in the air to attract the attention of police officers. His son thought he heard some one trying to effect an entrance into the house.

The Electric Washer is Particularly Serviceable at Housecleaning Time

Your curtains and draperies can always be fresh and attractive, if you have an Electric Washer in your home to make their washing easy.

A tubful of clothes, snowy-white and spotless, every 10 to 15 minutes, is evidence of the speed with which the Electric Washer does its work.

2 HOME RUNS AID REFINERS IN 5-1 WIN

Refiners 5, Mechanics 1.

The rollicking Refiners showed themselves to be fit material to meet the Chesty All-Standards in next week's series, when in the first frame of yesterday's game they garnered two tallies of the long end of the above score.

The first ball thrown by the tough Dutchman for the Mechanics was swatted by Bartram for two bags, and Steen soaked the horsehide for a homer in the same frame.

This made it look bad for Kogler, but he tightened his belt and kept smiling through a siege of willow-wielding that would have made a timid heart quake.

The game was a fast one, and snappy enough for the big pastimers.

Referring again to the plucky little Dutchman: In the second inning, each sack was occupied by a Refiner, and not a man down. Kogler's friends were shielding their eyes from an imminent slaughter.

But Mount sawed the air with his stick, while O'Conner, Pitcher and Zimmerman looked longingly at the home plate. Following Mount, Childs stepped up to try and bring in his buddies, and Wow, Humphrey ran after Childs' foul, bumping into the press cage and almost climbing the netting that protects the grand stand. He got the foul, and the bleachers sounded like ten thousand Irishmen storming an Orange congress.

Going after that foul showed pluck—getting it, showed pluck plus luck.

The field of the Mechanics tightened and when Bartram was retired, there was general relief, and the Refinery did not see home—not in that inning.

When little Vianna, cheery, smiling son of sunny Italy started to bat in the Mechanics' half of the second, Umpire Lawler handed him a package which friends from the bleachers had contributed: there were bananas and garlic and Kosher meat and a red bandanna. The youngster grinned and made a pretty little sacrifice hit advancing Humphrey to second. But McKeech-nie fanned and Cleek passed out on a popfly.

In the third inning Rubart for the Mechanics pulled a couple of boots—he threw a wild one to first and did a hesitation that netted the Refiners another tally.

In their half of this inning, luck broke against the Mechanics. Paulino slammed out a long one to the left pasture—an almost home run—but tripped at first and had to stick around that sack. It was a regular two-bagger, at that. (Paulino got three hits out of four times up and half the total, accorded his team).

The fourth inning was uneventful. In the fifth, after setting Childs down on a short grounder and pink slips for Bartram and Steen, from Kogler, the Mechanics took new courage. Cleek made first on a hot one. Kogler took a two-bagger. Paulino struck out, likewise Rubart. Robbin lined a safe one and Cleek scored. Robbin tried to make second, but was caught in the act, retiring his team.

In the sixth inning, Pitcher netted the Refiners two tallies when he sent the apple over the fence and brought in O'Conner. (Note the catcher's homer scored his pitcher).

The Mechanics did nothing in their half, although Topaz was pitted as a pinch hitter for McKeech-nie whose eye, wing and manner did not encourage the team captain. The umpire called a close one on Topaz—called it a strike, and again the Mechanics' hopes were blasted, or deferred.

In the seventh the Refiners appeared to be hurrying the playing, and added nothing to their total.

The Mechanics failed to stage a last inning rally, and the game was over.

Legion Team to Play Holton Bitters Team

Next Sunday's game to be played at the first street diamond between the American Legion team of Richmond and the Holton Bitters team of Oakland promises to be one of the fastest non-professional contests of the season.

The Bitters bunch are reported to have some rattling good material. They played with credit in some exhibition games with the Oaks, of the P. C. L. prior to the opening of the season.

The following line-up is announced for the American Legion: Long 2b; Daniels, 3b; Tefts, ss; Chamberlain, cf; Lambrecht, lb; Rhief-schneider, lf; Ziemer, c; Pinkerton p; Tandy, Miller.

The game will be called at 2:30.

Lanky Phelps is Making a Whiz of a Record

Lanky Phelps, star twirler of the All-Standards, has got a record that Walter Johnson might envy. He has yielded eight hits in twenty-one innings. Opposing teams have scored one run against him and he has to his credit two shut-outs.

In Wednesday's game he held the Barrel House bunch to three hits, all of which that Nifty Nelson took.

Fans are going to be on their toes wondering what'll happen next week when he goes up against the Refiners.

Get your dope sheet and figure what the Refiners' batters have done. You can have a lot of fun.

Allen Making Up His Mind on St. Louis Contract

Rod Allen is making up his mind with reference to that contract from the St. Louis Americans.

"Yes, the contract has been put up to me, and I have promised to give them an answer right away."

Allen said the contract was a good one, but modestly declined to divulge the figures.

He was visited by Scout Bill Hollander, who came over from San Francisco to dicker with the centerfielder.

Store Announcement No. 11

A safe store to pin faith to is this. In many ways the best store because it is the most reliable. It gives the best service day in and day out and year in and year out. It shows the new things earliest and very often exclusively. It shows the greatest varieties always, hunting carefully to bring the most choice and useful here. Its prices are the lowest possible for reliable goods and it protects its patrons with a broad guarantee.

Such a store as this is surely a useful feature of this community. How wide the confidence and approval it has won is evidenced by such growth as has probably never come to any other store in Richmond. By visiting the store now and seeing the display of summer goods just in you can easily understand why we have made these statements in regard to our store's policy and methods of doing business.

Blind Pigs Few Here Banqueters Are Informed

Richmond is enforcing the dry laws of the country more effectively and more conscientiously than is San Francisco.

"San Francisco is full of blind pigs and bootleggers and the path of most of the other criminals of that city lead to the doors of those parasites," according to Mr. A. H. Briggs, of San Francisco state representative of the Anti-Saloon League.

Supervisor Wilson of San Francisco, who has got the right ideas about the enforcement of the terms and provisions of the Volstead Act, according to Superintendent Briggs.

canism, according to the dry leader. And the man who ignores the constitution is not a good American in the view of Wolfe, says Briggs.

The superintendent gave it as his opinion that Richmond and the other communities of the East Bay region are showing a disposition to accept the constitution in its entirety and not to single out for respect those sections that suit them, and laugh to scorn those that displease.

Five Soldier Bills Are Signed by the Governor

SACRAMENTO, May 19.—Five bills drawn in the interests of veterans of the late war are among the thirty-six measures signed by Governor William D. Stephens.

The most important of the five was S. B. 935 by Senator J. L. C. Irwin of Hanford, authorizing boards of supervisors to levy a special tax for the construction of memorial halls, homes and meeting places for ex-service men.

Another measure, S. B. No. 976 by Senator E. S. Rigdon of San Luis Obispo, provides that money derived by the State from the sale of delinquent tax property be used for the education of war veterans and orphans of veterans.

Two of the bills, A. B. No. 906 and 909, give boards of supervisors the right to exempt ex-soldiers from the payment of certain license taxes and S. B. No. 25, exempts soldiers from the payment of fees for filing and recording documents.

The Governor also signed A. B. No. 1267 which makes it a misdemeanor for any person not so authorized to wear the badge or insignia of the Grand Army of the Republic, American Legion or Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A group of bills changing the boundaries of certain fish and game districts in the south and restricting the catching of clams, lobsters, abalones and certain kinds of fish also were signed.

LAST SAD RITES OVER REMAINS OF CHAS. STREETER

Yesterday at the Wilson and Donnelly parlors the last sad rites were said over the remains of the late Charles Streeter. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Paul Little.

The pall bearers were from the Moose and Pythian lodges, and the members of the Pythian Sisters turned out in colors.

Skeyhill to Talk for Chautauqua in City Richmond

A million dollars a minute is what New York society paid to hear Tom Skeyhill speak for the Fourth Liberty Loan Drive, October, 1918, in the Metropolitan opera house, when after one of the most brilliant speeches of his career, he single-handed raised the unprecedented amount of $23,750,000 in twenty-three minutes, thus vindicating the opinion of the leading English and American newspapers that he is the greatest speaker of the war.

Just as the curtain rung down on the final tableaux the youthful figure of Skeyhill in the strange-clad uniform limped on the platform. The next moment he started speaking. He told of battles fiercely fought, youthful bravery in the heart of war—he swept the audience off its feet. Two million dollars by John D. Rockefeller started the ball. Single millions, halves, and quarters and so on down to a thousand, followed.

The New York Tribune later referred to the meeting as the greatest demonstration in the history of any war loan campaign in any nation. Theodore Roosevelt said of him: "I would rather be on the platform with Tom Skeyhill than any man I know."

The spirit of adventure runs strong in Skeyhill's heart. He has spent the past winter in the heart of Soviet Russia and returns to America with a fact lecture of intense interest and value about conditions in the land of Bolsheviks. He will appear at the Chautauqua on the fourth night.

Skeyhill is one of the Chautauqua attractions in Richmond from May 25th to 31st.
